

What will be the next step for the future of Shirke Kitchens?

We are planning for expanding our manufacturing unit to fulfill our needs. As we have planned we will focus on Modular Kitchen & Wardrobe. Simultaneously we have also started Institutional sale. We are providing Kitchens in bulk quantities to builders. We have gained confidence to serve the big volume orders also.

How do you think magazines like Kitchen Desire help the industry grow?

Kitchen Desire is platform where Manufacturers, Architects, Designers, Traders come across each other, share their views, help to grow each other. People have started considering kitchen as a special segment in Home Interiors which needs to be handled by a special team of experts. ■
